In the UK

Cold. It's cold

Although I warned my mom before she came,...

It seemed that winter still didn't move away for spring.

When we guessed that finally spring had started for real in May,...

Yes.. Ah... Aren't you cold too?
Yeah, it's suddenly very cold because of the wind..

I brought a scarf just in case. Do you want to wear it?

After
a scuffle broke out between us, finally...

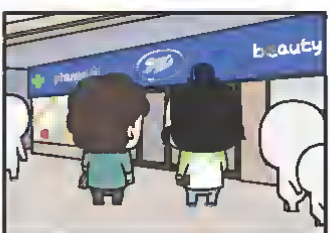
My mom and I went out.



We went to the town centre
and did some shopping.
We walked around many places
and then,...

Mom..

This .

This is ..

..much warmer
Isn't it?

...two necks in one scarf.

...it wasn't a perfect spring day.

...soon,
it was time to go back home.

Like weather,
there was samething else that made my mom impressed

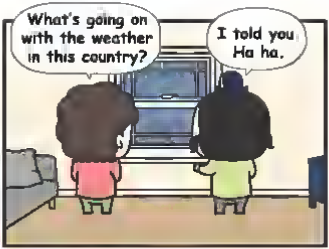
It was that British people didn't seem like they were feeling cold as much as we did.

Then, one very sunny day.



my mom is still surprised by weather in the UK
